

Instructions for Authors

Submission of papers is welcomed for consideration by the Editor. Papers should not have been published elsewhere, or submitted simultaneously to other journals. Any previous oral presentations should be noted by the author.

The following types of contributions will be considered:

- Papers describing original research;
- Literature reviews of 3,000 to 10,000 words

Refereeing

All contributions will be refereed, and may require revisions before final acceptance. Once accepted, papers may be amended by the Editor.

Manuscripts

Papers should not normally exceed 10,000 words, with allowance made for tables and illustrations. Three copies of the manuscript should be submitted, typed double spaced on only one side of the paper with a margin of at least one inch (25mm) on either side of the text. An abstract of 100 - 200 words should accompany the paper. SI units should be used.

References

should be listed at the end of the text, numbered in order of citation, denoted by superscript numbers in the text. For periodicals they should read: name of author(s), journal, volume number, year of issue (in parentheses), page number. For books: name of author(s), title, city and country of origin, year of issue (in parentheses). For conference papers: author(s), conference name, paper number, location, year of event (in parentheses).

Illustrations

Wherever possible, graphs and diagrams should be supplied as camera ready copy, on individual A4 sheets, with figure numbers and captions.

Computer generated graphics can also be accepted in a number of formats (e.g. TIFF, Autocad, EPS). No amendments can be made to the illustrations supplied.

Photographs

These should be black and white glossy prints. They should be clearly labelled with the author's name and figure number. A scale, where appropriate, should be marked or indicated in the figure caption.

Offprints

No page charges are applied. Authors will be sent 1 preprint of the article, free of charge, and in the case of multi-authored papers, it will be sent to the first-named author unless specifically requested otherwise.

Authors wishing to submit manuscripts, which may be sent by mail or through the Internet, should send them to:
